

INTERROGATIONS

The personnel of each school, whenever possible, should endeavor to handle its alcohol and drug problems. However, in instances when law enforcement is necessary, it is important that school administrators coordinate actions between police and the schools. An enlightened working relation between school personnel and law enforcement officers can help to facilitate the handling of not only alcohol and drug cases, but also the problem areas of mutual concern. Any time questioning of the student by law enforcement authority is in order, the parent or legal guardian of the student will be called provided that doing so does not unreasonably interfere with the duties of law enforcement such that justice is obstructed.
